

RESOLUTION NO. 664

WHEREAS, John Shadoff served the Department of Transportation from March 1991 through May 31, 2004, as the Transportation Demand Management (TDM) Resource Center Manager, and*

WHEREAS, John Shadoff is recognized by his peers as one of the leading TDM experts in Washington State and the nation, significantly advancing TDM theory, analysis and application;*

WHEREAS, John Shadoff worked tirelessly for over 25 years to expand and improve commute options in the Puget Sound region, including co-founding the King County METRO vanpool program, now the largest public program in the country; pioneering a new approach to commuter travel through the car-sharing program now offered by Flexcar in three states; and creating the TDM Resource Center for WSDOT, which received national recognition for leadership and innovation;*

WHEREAS, the Association for Commuter Transportation recently recognized John Shadoff with its national leadership award, noting his work on SR 520 and I-405, one of the most comprehensive corridor TDM plans in the country;*

WHEREAS, John Shadoff’s contributions reach well beyond the department and benefit many organizations including King County METRO, the Washington State Ridesharing Organization, Commuter Challenge, and the Association for Commuter Transportation;*

WHEREAS, John Shadoff’s professionalism, integrity, dedication and commitment has earned him the highest respect and recognition from his WSDOT colleagues, and externally from state and national colleagues.*

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, the Transportation Commission hereby officially recognizes and honors John Shadoff for his dedicated services to the people of the State of Washington, and for his advancement of Transportation Demand Management in this state and nationally, and wishes success in his future endeavors.*

ADOPTED this 19th day of May 2004.*
